Please follow the regular weekly class routines for Arts, Commerce and Science streams and conduct the online classes as prescribed in the weekly class routines until the implementation of a proposed digital routine. Furthermore, authority requests all teachers to provide up-to-date, standard quality course material with easy explanation in the online teaching-learning process. Each class should contain live/recorded audio/video lecture for a better understanding of the topic among our students. Please try to prioritise Semester VI along with all other semesters.
